SkyQuest International arranged the sale of One (1) ATR 42-300 Cargo Aircraft

Winston Salem, North Carolina, Friday September 7, 2007 For Immediate Release

SkyQuest International, LLC, on behalf of Wiggins Airways (Manchester, NH), arranged the sale of one (1) ATR 42-300 Cargo Aircraft (serial number 228) to LaserLine Lease Finance Corporation (Palm Springs, California).

The ATR 42 is a twin-turboprop, regional airliner built in France by ATR. The name 42 comes from the aircraft's seating, which varies from 40 to 50. The aircraft was the basis for the ATR 72. The 300 was the original ATR 42 aircraft, powered by Pratt & Whitney Canada PW-120 engines rated at 2,000 shp. An STC exists to convert all ATR 42 variants to cargo-only transport aircraft. FedEx, UPS, and DHL are major operators of the type. This Aircraft was converted to Freighter Configuration by M7 in 2006.
